PROLOGUE

PROLOGUE

Thanks to the reconstruction proceeding at a miraculous pace, the scars of destruction to the thoroughly destroyed headquarters of the Regular Army and its surrounding city were becoming less and less noticeable to the objective observer.

Just as people were beginning to recover a long-lost sense of vitality and order, a video transmission arrived at HQ from the Regular Army's Division of Intel. Discovered in a clip from a documentary on the waste disposal controversy was the brief flash of a figure appearing to be one of Morden's soldiers crossing the screen.

The Division of Intel had no doubts: this was indisputably a member of Morden's Forces. HQ swiftly organized a six-man covert strike force assigned with the following objectives:

Confirm the presence of Morden's Forces, and then eliminate them—with extreme prejudice! Marco, Tarma, Eri, and Fio were quickly assembled as the initial members for this mission. Ralf and Clark, who had previously thrown in their lots with Marco and company, were also on board.

"Hey! Long time, no see. I guess it's up to me to put things right yet again!!!"

"Back to the front, eh?
Aren't we just a bunch of peas in a pod?"

So began our heroes infiltration of Garbage Island, perhaps the final lair of Morden's Forces.

And these forces were sharpening their swords, awaiting their arrival and preparing to pounce.

CHARACTERS

MARCO ROSSI

The always easy-going Marco cannot hide his fierce rage toward General Morden, who took the lives of his friends and colleagues. A skilled agent of the special-ops squad, he's also quite the intellectual and dabbles in computer science during his down-time.

TARMA ROVING

Away from the battlefield, Tarma is known to play a practical joke or two on the over-serious Marco but pays his brother in arms the highest respects as a soldier. His hobby is creating customized motorcycles with a devotion to craftsmanship that puts professionals to shame.

ERI KASAMOTO

Eri began life as an orphan, abandoned on the steps of a church. Once she caught on to the ways of the world, she left that church behind and became leader of a band of street kids. At this time she was recruited by the Regular Army's Division of Intel who saw promise in her innate ability for combat.

FIO GERMI

Thanks to her father machinations, Fio found her aimless life turned topsy-turvy when she was enlisted into the ranks of the Regular Army.... Be it a result of the unconditional love that her parents bathed her in or perhaps her unassuming manner, she hopes to one day become a sports doctor.

RALF JONES

Ralf is Clark's old amis-de-guerre, and they've been attached at the hip in every hot spot throughout the globe since either can remember. Ralf's unofficial participation in a certain fighting contest is now legend, and his abilities at hand-to-hand battles can only be described as superhuman.

CLARK STILL

Clark has been in his mercenary squad since time immemorial, but his past is one big question mark. Those unfortunate enough to meet up with him in battle soon find themselves airborne, followed by a helpless plummet to earth for a face-first meeting with the ground.

WEAPON CHANGE: R button

This lets you switch the weapon you're currently using with one in your stock of weapons (see p. 12).

WEAPON TOSS: L button + ○ button

RALF: Vulcan Punch. You can move as you punch your enemies repetitively. This move can even destroy a tank in hand-to-hand combat.

CLARK: Super Argentine Backbreaker. Fling enemies out of the way. If you toss a series of enemies out of the way in an interval of 1.5 seconds, you increase your score as follows: 1 enemy = 1,000 pts.; 2 enemies = 2,000 pts.; 3 enemies = 4,000 pts.; 4 enemies = 8,000 pts.; and 5 enemies = 16,000 pts.

SLUG ACTIONS

NOTE: Controls are described by their default settings.

BOARD SLUG:

GET CLOSE TO A SLUG AND PUSH THE  button

You can board a Slug when you approach one displaying the "IN" message and jump in.

Push this to fire a cannon shell. The amount of cannon shells is limited, but you can increase these by scooping up material items (see p. 13).

ESCAPE SLUG: DIRECTIONAL BUTTON/ANALOG STICK DIRECTION + button

COOPERATIVE PLAY

TWO-PLAYER COOPERATIVE PLAY

You can play two-player cooperative games if you have two PSP® systems and two "METAL SLUG XX" UMD discs.

ITEMS NEEDED:

- ❶ PSP® (PlayStation®Portable) systems2 systems
- ❷ "METAL SLUG XX"2 discs

- This software title accommodates wireless LAN (Ad-hoc Mode) play. With the use of Ad-hoc Mode, two PSP® system users can cooperate and play together. Online play through the Internet, however, is not accommodated.
- Switch the wireless LAN switch to the ON position before beginning play in Ad-hoc Mode.
- If the distance between players exceeds the range capable of accommodating wireless communication during gameplay in Ad-hoc Mode, the game automatically ends.

BEGINNING TWO-PLAYER COOPERATIVE PLAY:

- ❶ Once you've prepared the items described above, each player starts the game on their PSP® system.
- ❷ Both players then push the START button when the title screen appears and move onto the Main Menu to select and confirm the "MAIN MISSION" option.
- ❸ When the Play Mode Select screen appears, both players first choose and confirm "NETWORK."
- ❹ Next, the player to be "Player 1" selects and confirms "HOST"; "Player 2" selects "JOIN."
- ❺ Both Player 1(host) and Player 2 then must select the same level of difficulty.
- ❻ After the Game Lobby screen appears, Player 2 accesses Player 1's game and when Player 1 selects "ACCEPT," the link is established. * If both 1P and 2P's difficulty settings are not the same at this step, the ad-hoc matching will not occur correctly.
- ❼ Once both players choose their character, the co-op game will start from Mission 1. The Mission Select option is not available in this game mode, as in co-op play the campaign will always start from Mission 1.

NOTE: Please note that two-player play using this title assumes two players, as described above, initially begin games together; consequently, two-player play under other conditions, such as two-player burst-in play, is not possible.
